DEDICATION

To a man who has given his life, love, devotion, and knowledge to his students, we the editor and staff of the 1963 BOBASHELA, dedicate our annual.

Wherever his name is mentioned a smile comes to the face of all those who have known him. He has truly wanted each one of his students to learn. He never ceases to amaze his classes with surprises. This man is a unique actor for knowledge who plays a different role each day whether he is a glacier or a planet. His dramatic enthusiasm never rests until the whole class shares it. He illustrates each fact with an interesting personal experience—one never forgotten. He has molded students not only into scientists but also into individuals. His unselfishness, fairness, patience, gentlemanly manners, and desire for everyone to be happy, have made him a rare, cherished teacher and friend. Because he has given himself to his profession and shared with us his knowledge in a perfect way, and because he has set the finest example as a person before all Millsaps students, we honor in the 1963 BOBASHELA—DR. RICHARD RANDALL PRIDDY.

He is the stern disciplinarian of the classroom,
 The kind inspiration to learning,
 The quiet scholar by his fireside,
 The jovial coffee-drinker in his free period,
 He is the ideal of the teacher to Millsaps.

PRESIDENT

... A dignified gentleman, an outstanding administrator, and a personal friend to all students are only three of the personalities of the President of Millsaps College, Dr. Homer Ellis Finger. Every year he amazes the freshmen by learning each of their names on Orientation Day. And he remembers the names as he speaks to all in the Millsaps tradition of friendliness. President Finger is the most enthusiastic supporter of his college and each of its students. And the students of Millsaps are equally proud of their capable leader.

TOP BOBASHELA BEAUTY

From twenty nominees for Top BOBASHELA Beauty, the judges selected a statuesque sophomore with blue eyes and brown hair, Miss Mary Jane Ray of Jackson. This year's reigning beauty was a nominee in 1961 and was selected as one of twenty finalists for the 1962 Maid of Cotton contest. She is a history major and a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mary Jane served as orientation counselor; she is co-feature editor of the 1963 BOBASHELA.

THE BOBASHELA staff is proud to present charming and vivacious Mary Jane as their Top Beauty.

Bobashela Beauties

Early in October the Millsaps Student Body nominated its choices for the top twenty beauties of the campus. The following week a panel of distinguished judges from the Jackson area took over the difficult task of narrowing the field of lovelies to five and finally to one.

The first round of judging took place at a coffee held the afternoon before the official Beauty Review. At the coffee, there were those important individual interviews with the judges. Then, that evening, as everyone waited with bated breath, the twenty pretty belles took the stage for the annual pageant.

The girls paraded in their white evening gowns down the star-blue staircase which spanned the stage and back across the platform under the brilliance of a glittering chandelier. From this dazzling group the judges selected, not without great deliberation, the ten semifinalists. Between the rounds of judging, the audience was entertained royally by some of the top campus talent, until finally, the number of beauties was narrowed to five finalists, one of whom was named as the Top Beauty of 1962. A startled but extremely happy young lady was enthusiastically acclaimed by the audience and presented with a bouquet of long stemmed red roses.

In honor of the new Campus Beauty, a lively dance was held immediately following the review to bring to a close a very perfect day.

WHO'S WHO

This year eighteen Millsaps students were elected for membership in Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges. These students were selected by the faculty and administration on the basis of leadership and participation in academic and extra-curricular activities, scholarship, citizenship.

Who's Who was originated in 1934 by Mr. H. P. Randall as a directory of outstanding students in universities and colleges throughout the United States. At present, there are approximately seven hundred American colleges and ten thousand students represented in Who's Who every year. Women's Student Government

The regulations and restrictions of the women resident students are the responsibility of the Mill-saps Women's Student Government. The W.S.G. is an assembly of dormitory assistants, dormitory council members, housemothers, and sorority representatives. The advisor to the organization is Mrs. Glen Pate, Dean of Women. The dormi-tory councils meet each week in the respective dormitories to discuss matters concerning the women resident students.

BOBA

The click-clack of typewriter keys, the tap-tap of wooden rulers and pencils, the drum-drum of nervous fingers on table tops, the rattling rustle of layout sheets, the clink-clank of coffee cups, the crunchy crackle of potato chip bags—this is the BOBASHELA office at deadline time.

Throughout the school year one can see flash bulbs popping over the campus not only at important functions but also at the most inopportune times for some students—for one never knows where or when a BOBASHELA photographer will suddenly appear to snap a candid photo.

One may be sure, however, that these cameras are trained on the stage for the annual Beauty Review sponsored by the BOBASHELA—and one of the definite highlights of the school year.

SHELA

Yet, at other more "unglamorous" times, one can find the staff members combing the bountiful editions of past college yearbooks, kept stored in the hallowed recesses of the office cabinets. In their diligence, they are constantly presided over by the papier-mache, yellow and brown giraffe perched on the rafters of the office and by their attractive, soft-spoken editor-in-chief, in her black-rimmed glasses. All work together to put together a BOBASHELA full of lasting memories of college days. "Bobashela" is actually an Indian word meaning good friend—and it is sure that the BOBASHELA will always be the best friend one can consult for reminiscences of Millsaps 1963.

PURPLE AND WHITE

The upstairs lounge in the Student Union is a very good place for studying—or catching a quick forty winks when you just can't make it any longer—that is, it's a good place most of the time. But if sometime you should be upstairs deep in philosophy of religion or short, sweet slumber, and should be suddenly aroused by shrill hyena-like screams (which will probably be coming from the PURPLE AND WHITE office, don't panic—just gather your wits and listen again. If you do you will probably recognize the sound to be human laughter. Next tiptoe to the door of the office and peek in. The people you see engaged in hysterical jollity are the editors and staff of the campus newspaper, the PURPLE AND WHITE. They may be working on that week's edition—but they probably are not—for these people are strict adherents to the old adage, "All work and no play makes warped personalities." Perhaps it's the quality of being extremely un-warped that enables the P. & W. staff to turn out a weekly account of what's going on around campus and some extras that make the appearance of the PURPLE AND WHITE each week an anticipated event.

STYLUS

To the average individual, a stylus is a "sharp-pointed instrument for manifolding with carbon paper." To the informed Millsaps student Stylus is an anthology of the literary works of campus short story-ists, playwrights, poets and essayists. To the uninformed Millsaps student Stylus is a subject on which to become quickly informed (or suffer the intellectual consequences). Fortunately for the uninformed, there are two opportunities during the year to become acquainted with the literary magazine. If a student should be sick, lost, or hibernating in the library when the fall edition appears—there's always the spring edition—(the only excuse for missing it is falling victim to a belated snowfall). In the spring he may purchase (for a moderate sum) his copy of Stylus and settle down to the delight of becoming informed and offer enthusiastic (and well-deserved) congratulations to its student editorial staff and its gifted contributors.

MAJOR FACTS

There is a saying among upperclassmen that freshmen don't know much (and that saying has, at times, proved to be valid). There is a saying among freshmen that goes, "If an upperclassman doesn't know, look it up in Major Facts—well, you'd better look it up anyway, just to be sure." Major Facts is a pocket-sized "guide to living" on the Millsaps campus. This little book, which is edited by Millsaps students, as a miniature encyclopedia of regulations, traditions and general information about Millsaps. The editor of Major Facts is appointed by the president of the student body, with the advice of the Dean of Students.

Countess Aurelia, the Madwoman of Chailot, was Johnette Wilkerson.

PLAYERS

"Wasn't it tremendous!" "Superb performances by every member of the cast!" These are merely two typical comments that one can hear from the enthusiastic students that pour forth from the auditorium after a presentation by the Millsaps Players. In early November came the Players first "big one" of the year. Under the consistently outstanding direction of Lance Soss, a large troop of dramatic-minded students presented the two-act comedy The Madwoman of Chailot by French playwright Jean Giraudoux. Not stopping with one, the Players stepped along to an even more smashing success in their "Arena 62" presentation in December. This twin-bill included Tennessee Williams' Suddenly Last Summer, and Edward Albee's The American Dream. Both plays drew "rave" notices in the Jackson papers. The spring season, of course, was equally successful—adding more plays to the cultural repertoire of Millsaps students. All in all it was a very good year for the Players of Millsaps—but, delightfully enough, isn't every year.

MILLSAPS SINGERS

It is probable that many freshmen, before they had ever seen the Millsaps Campus, had heard about the Millsaps Singers. Possibly they had attended a Singers concert in their own home town, for the Millsaps Singers is one of the finest choirs in the South and is well-known and received not only in the Southern States but all over the country. This year the Singers' travels took them to Washington, D. C. and through several of the eastern states.

In addition to their performances on the campus, such as the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" and the annual Feast of Lights Christmas program, the concert choir has sung on many occasions for civic and social organizations in and around Jackson. The choir is under the direction of Mr. Leland Byler.

Madrigal Singers

The Madrigals Singers, Millsaps smaller choral group, also has a reputation for its fine quality, and each year this reputation grows. The Madrigals is composed of twenty voices and includes in its repertoire songs ranging from Renaissance to contemporary, secular to spiritual. Like the Concert Choir, the Madrigals presents many programs for organizations here in the city and in the surrounding area, as well as on campus. Director of the Madrigals is Mr. Lowell Byler.

Chapel Choir

The primary function of the Chapel Choir, directed by Mr. Charles Sims, is to sing at the weekly chapel services. In the fall it joins the Concert Choir and the Madrigal Singers in presenting the "Messiah" and at Christmas, in the presentation of the Feast of Carols. The Chapel Choir is open to anyone who wishes to participate.

CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

The planning and co-ordinating of any inter-denominational religious activity on campus is the responsibility of the Christian Council. The Council membership is comprised of the presidents of the campus religious groups and one elected representative from each group. The Council sponsors Holy Communion services (conducted in Fitzhugh Chapel by some clerical member of the faculty) on Wednesday mornings and on days preceding various holidays; each year it sponsors a Religious Emphasis Week, during which follow a theme selected by the Council. Another service of the Christian Council is the printing and distributing of the programs for the weekly chapel services.

YWCA

The Young Women's Christian Association is a national organization committed to Christian ideals and high standards. It has as its purpose the development of young women into better citizens and Christians. A sincere interest in promoting Christian ideals is its only membership requirements.

In the Millsaps chapter, each year the individual members adopt "little sisters" in the Methodist Children's Home. These little sisters are entertained with suppers, parties, and trips to special events such as the annual Feast of Carols.

The organization meets twice monthly for programs of fellowship, worship, and action projects.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union on the Millsaps Campus serves as a liaison between the Baptist student and the Church. At its meetings, which are held weekly, the BSU presents programs to provide encouragement for spiritual growth and to challenge the student to live a better Christian life.

In addition to presenting weekly programs, the Baptist Student Union, in conjunction with the Baptist Churches of Jackson, holds a progressive dinner which provides a tour of the Jackson Baptist Churches.

MINISTERIAL LEAGUE

The Ministerial League is an organization for those students who are planning to enter the ministry. Membership in the League is open to all pre-ministerial students, regardless of denomination. It is designed to acquaint the pre-ministerial students with problems which he may face in the ministry and to give him an opportunity for practical experience. The responsibility of printing the schedule cards used in registration belong to the Ministerial League, which also sponsors the annual Galloway award given to the pre-ministerial student who has prepared the best sermon of that year. Any other projects of the League are conducted in conjunction with the W. C. W.

CANTERBURY

The organization for those students on campus who are members of the Anglican Communion is the Canterbury Association. Canterbury dedicates its programs to worship, study, stewardship, evangelism, and Christian social activity. The Association sponsors a variety of weekly activities which include the administration of the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, Evening Prayer (The Litany, in Lent), and a weekly discussion session. During Lent Canterbury serves as a sponsor of weekly ecumenical services.

DISCIPLES STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Disciples Student Fellowship is the campus religious organization of the Christian Church. The purposes of this organization are fellowship, information and worship. Its meetings are held each week on Monday evenings, and the regular program is followed by refreshments and general discussion. During the course of the year the group has several parties, including a special Christmas party. As its official project the organization has taken partial sponsorship of a child in the Christian Church's orphanage in Atlanta, Georgia. Meetings of the Disciples Student Fellowship are open to students of any denomination.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The campus unit of the Methodist Student Movement is the Wesley Fellowship. Wesley provides fellowship through challenging programs to broaden their ideas. The projects of Wesley include weekly (each Wednesday night) visits to the Boys' Farm for recreation and short worship services, caroling (shortly before Christmas) at the Methodist and Baptist orphanages, and the annual pancake supper (held in the Spring) on the night before the S. E. B. election when each candidate presents his platform before the student body.

WESTMINSTER

The campus organization for Presbyterian students is Westminster. The members of Westminster meet once a week for fellowship, worship, and study. Its programs include speakers, song fests, and even cookouts, and each program includes a brief devotional. In the fall of the year, the Presbyterian churches of Jackson sponsor a progressive dinner for the purpose of stimulating the interest of Millsaps students in attending the Sunday services at one of these churches, and to encourage membership in Westminster.

She is the loudest singer of sorority songs,
The sophisticated lady in black with furs,
The enthusiastic saleswoman for all projects,
The understanding "big sister" to all pledges.

He is the fastest twister at every party,
The Ivy-Leaguer with blazer and crest,
The boisterous supporter of his intramural team,
The intellectual who raises his group's point-index.

She wears his pin with hers.
They are the Greeks of Millsaps.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council of Millsaps College is composed of the presidents and two representatives of the four sororities. Among the duties of the Council is the compiling of rules governing rushing, pledging, initiating on campus and the general administration of Rush Week. One of the highlights of the year is the Greek dance at the climax of Rush Week which the Panhellenic sponsors jointly with the IFC. The Council strives to maintain high standards of inter-sorority life, to unify the interests of sorority and non-sorority women, and to promote cooperation with college authorities in developing high social and scholastic standards.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

Her favorite colors are ruby and pink; her favorite flower is the red rose; and oh, how she loves to sing! She is a member of Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority . . . She and her Beta Sig sisters are enthusiastic workers in many organizations at Millsaps as well as in their own group.

Throughout the year major roles in the Players' productions were portrayed by Beta Sigs, and hammers, paint brushes, and make-up sponges were wielded by BSO's behind the scenes. The gym resounded with cheers when the BSO's took the floor for Intramurals.

Some members preferred songs to cheers as they sang with the Madrigals and the Concert Choir. Leadership was found within this sorority with the presence of the president of Panhellenic Council and the president of Wesley Foundation, and two seniors were elected to Who's Who and Sigma Lambda.

For these efforts and for their diligent studies, BSO's were received as members of several honoraries including Theta Nu Sigma, Alpha Psi Omega, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Pi Delta Phi, and Majorette Club.

CHI OMEGA

The little white bridge on President Street leads to a little white house among the trees which has weathered twenty-eight years of Rush Week, pledging, and initiation for Chi Omega Fraternity. Then suddenly the Chi O owls built a new nest of red brick by the library. The lovers of the tawny grey bird had a new home in 1962 for their tradition of outstanding activity.

Campus leaders emerged from the new house as quickly as they had from the old. There were singers for the Madrigals and Concert Choir, actresses and backstage workers for the Millsaps Players, writers for the PURPLE AND WHITE, staff members and an editor-in-chief for the BOB-ASHELA, athletes for Intramurals, and cheerleaders for the Millsaps Majors. Elections brought forth others: three won places (including first) among the top five beauties, two became class officers, and three joined the group of campus favorites. From among these well-known Chi O's were tapped members for Theta Nu Sigma, Eta Sigma Phi, I.R.C., Alpha Epsilon Delta, Social Science Forum, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Pi Delta Phi, and Majorette Club.

There was a lighter tradition at the Chi Omega house, too. This year they resumed the custom which was broken last year of choosing an Owl Man. Murray Underwood was crowned at the annual fall party.

KAPPA DELTA

Chances are, that girl carrying a bouquet of white roses is on her way to visit a friend in the hospital; then again, she may be a member of Kappa Delta Sorority on her way to decorate for the White Rose Ball. If she is a KD, she is probably in a hurry because she has a million and one things to do before she can go out that night. Besides getting her hair done, she may have to practice with the Concert Choir (or maybe it's the Madrigals); or perhaps if she is the KD who is a cheerleader, there is, more than likely, a practice or a game that she must go to.

And, she is only one of many busy KD's, for the Mu Chapter of Kappa Delta counts among its members many active young women who are recipients of a number of high honors. This year, from KD membership came the Homecoming Queen and Miss Millsaps, two campus favorites, three members of Who's Who, the secretary and the treasurer of the Student Body, three class officers, the president and secretary of the Women's Council, one of the top five beauties, and the editor of STYLUS. The Kappa Deltas were further rewarded for their service to Millsaps when KD's were selected for membership in Sigma Lambda, Eta Sigma Phi, Pi Kappa Delta, Alpha Psi Omega, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Eta Sigma, Pi Delta Phi, the Majorette Club, IRC, and the Social Science Forum.

PHI MU

The neat little cottage on North President Street is always bustling with activity, for the Phi Mu Fraternity is noted for its zest and school spirit. Their clever skits during Rush Week, their lively dances and parties, and their warmth and friendliness to everyone are things which one naturally associates with the Phi Mu's.

They lend their enthusiastic participation to practically every phase of campus life. Two of their members are serving as school cheerleaders, and two others were maids in the Homecoming Court (an honor bestowed upon them by the football team for their active support of athletic events). Also, from the Phi Mu chapter come the president of B.S.U., vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class. They boast of one of the top twenty beauties, a worker on the BOBASHELA staff, writers for the PURPLE AND WHITE, workers in the Players, an outstanding member of the Debate Team, and a delegate to the annual Youth Congress. Among the honoraries claiming Phi Mu's as members are Theta Nu Sigma, Eta Sigma Phi, Social Science Forum, and the Majorette Club.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

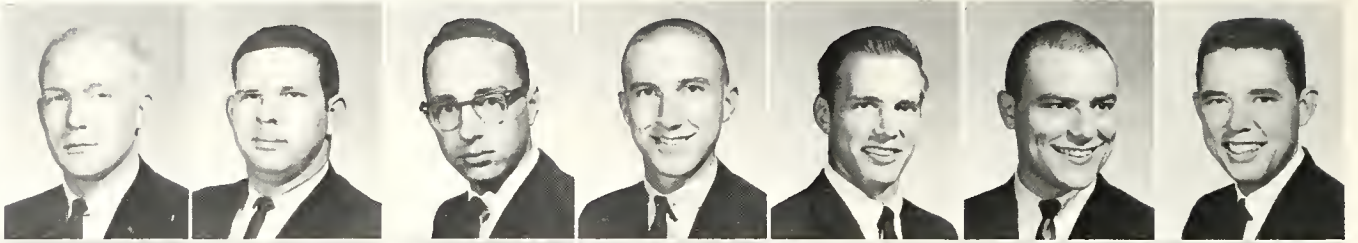

The Interfraternity Council is an organization designed to regulate and govern the activities of the four social fraternities on Millsaps campus. Composed of two elected representatives from each fraternity, it works to create a spirit of friendly brotherhood among the men's organizations. Naturally their main duty is the co-ordination of Rush Week activities. However, they also seek to unify fraternity action in solving the many problems which arise throughout the school year and to promote active cooperation between the college and the individual fraternities.

Piles of furniture, old papers, soft drink bottles, owl feathers, and tattered Confederate flags were the first evidence that Kappa Alpha Order was abandoning its old white house for a new "Southern mansion."

Other evidence that the "grand ole gang" took the initiative in campus activity was frequent representation at the polls. The vice-president of the student body, the presidents of the four classes, the vice-president of one class and the president of ODK, all followed the Southern Tradition. Master Major, two campus favorites, and three members of Who's Who were also of the "gang."

In other fields the Southern gentlemen led as the editor and the business manager of the PURPLE AND WHITE, staff members of the BOBASHELA, members of the Concert Choir and the Millsaps Players. They were represented on the football, basketball, track, golf, and baseball teams; and thus they contributed many members to the "M" Club.

Omieron Delta Kappa, Theta Nu Sigma, Eta Sigma, Alpha Epsilon Delta, and the Social Science Forum chose members and officers from among the followers of Lee.

On the other side (but the "right" side) of North State Street stands a stately white house. Therein reside 20 Kappa Sigma's, one boxer puppy, and one big black Persian cat. Oftentimes, shouts of "where is J-o-o-ohn, B-e-e-e?!!" and "Thirteen, thirteen, thirteen, screaming, screaming . . ." and those who hear may be moved to remark, "The Sigs are at play." On occasion silence reigns and the Sigs are at work—work which has resulted in the election of a Kappa Sigma to Who's Who, members of Kappa Sigma being tapped by various honoraries including ODK, Eta Sigma Phi, and Alpha Epsilon Delta, of which a Kappa Sig has been elected president. Two members of Kappa Sigma have been elected campus favorites, and one has been elected cheerleader.

This work extends beyond the white house and across the street where the Sigs serve Millsaps as staff members and editors of the BOBASHELA and the PURPLE AND WHITE, in the Concert Choir and Madrigals, and on football and basketball teams, officers of the Ministerial League and "M" Club, and on the SEB.

It has become almost a school tradition to hear the name of Lambda Chi Alpha read as the fraternity scholarship cup winner on Tap Day. And indeed, they pride themselves not only in their academic achievements but also in the contributions of their members to school life. From among their ranks come the president of the Student Body, the president of the Interfraternity Council, two members of Who's Who, two members of ODK, the business manager of the BOBASHELA, and several of the top debaters. Campus honoraries claiming Lamba Chi's as members are Alpha Epsilon Delta, Pi Kappa Delta, and the International Relations Club.

As a change of pace from their studies and more serious campus activities, the Lambda Chi's often discuss what new color to paint a certain room in their house next year. Also, they have the distinction of contributing the tallest player to the basketball team and the coolest "Colonel" to WJXN.

It was a somber group that met behind Founders Hall on that cold night of December 7. The men were clad in dark suits; the women were wearing black. In the midst of this lugubrious gathering lay a coffin bearing the last remains of some poor departed soul. As the parade of mourners made their way slowly across the campus, passers-by removed their hats in respect to the dead. Then the wake reached its destination . . . not a graveyard, but the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity house, where the clatter of snooker balls could soon be heard mingled with shouts of laughter at the doleful ruse of the evening. The Pikes were giving a "Morgue Party." The Pikes just seem to have a knack for party-giving, as evidenced by the "Red Neck" party and the Cotton Ball where the Dream Girl of PiKA was announced. Something new for the Pikes this year was a visit to Memphis highlighted by a tour of the fraternity's national office.

Other activities of the Pikes include singing in the choir, rehearsing with the Players, and rallying with the Majors on the basketball court. They are members of Alpha Epsilon Delta, Alpha Psi Omega, and Kit Kat. This year found a Pike among the campus Favorites and another holding the position of junior class vice-president.

MILLSAPS COACHES

This year, the Athletic Department at Millsaps had the largest coaching staff ever employed. Working with the Athletic Director, Dr. James Montgomery, were head football coach Bill Dupes, Coach Jerry Flatt, backfield, and Coach Vonnie Mack Breland, assistant line coach. In January, Coach Dupes resigned to accept a position at Austin Peay State Teacher's College, leaving behind a 3-4-1 season, the best football record since 1956. Selected to succeed Coach Dupes as head coach was Ray Thornton, a graduate of the University of Mississippi. Before he came to Millsaps, Coach Thornton was assistant football coach at Wake Forest.

FOOTBALL

"The athletic policy of Millsaps College is based on the premise that athletics exist for the benefit of the students and not primarily to enhance the prestige and publicity of the college." This sentence found in the 1961-62 Millsaps College Bulletin well describes the spirit of the varsity team. To the men on the team it means bitter disappointment, some discouragement, pride in triumph and anticipation of more wins. To the students in the stands watching from the sidelines, it's ringing cowbells and throwing up your hands and shouting, gloating a little, being excited a lot. Or it's being disappointed and not showing it because "we'll win the next one." To all of them—players, cheerleaders, spectators—it's building spirit and pride in Millsaps and pride in themselves as individual men and women.

Millsaps 0 Harding 13

Millsaps' fullback, Gaines Massey, fights his way through the Bison line.

A capacity crowd at Alumni Field saw the Millsaps Majors play their opening game against the Bisons of Harding College. Continuous rain made the playing field a sea of mud. Consequently, both teams had trouble handling the ball. Not until the last quarter of the game did the Bisons break the scoreless tie. With nine minutes left in the game Millsaps fumbled deep in their own territory. Harding, naturally, went on from there for the inevitable touchdown. But one touchdown called for another. When the final buzzer sounded the score was 13 to 0 in favor of Harding.

Majors 7 Sewanee 7

The Majors began to "show their muscles" in their second game of the season against Sewanee on the Tennesseean's playing field. The Tigers got off to an early 7-0 lead in the first half. However, the Majors, showing a fine defensive skill, held Sewanee to this mark for the rest of the game. In the second half, Millsaps demonstrated a new burst of energy; and after a drive into Sewanee's territory, Don Mitchell took the ball across the line to tie the game. Several field goal attempts were made the final minutes of the game by the Majors. All failed and time ran out with the score still tied. Nevertheless, the Majors showed themselves to be a much improved team, with bright prospects for the games to come.

Millsaps 21 Southwestern 0

Millsaps gained their first victory of the season at their Homecoming game at Newell Field by trouncing Southwestern 21 to 0. An enthusiastic and very large crowd of students and alumni watched the Majors put together a wide-open offense and air-tight defense to score in every period except the second and to keep the Lynx players from any serious scoring threat. Outstanding playing by Don Mitchell, Pat Barrett and William Richardson gave the Majors their three touchdowns. It was Millsaps all the way throughout the game—and the most exciting Homecoming game for Millsaps in many years.

Southwestern halfback rambles for yardage against a tough Millsaps defense.

Halfback, Bob Rutledge, sprints for Millsaps touchdown.

Millsaps 24 Austin 28

Scoring two touchdowns in the wild fourth quarter the Kangaroos of Austin College overcame Millsaps early, a spirited lead to win 28 to 24 at the first night game at Newell Field in Jackson. It was a heartbreaking game for Millsaps to lose. Until the fourth quarter, their defense was very good and their offense had two touchdowns and a field goal to show for itself. Austin pulled ahead, however, and the score was lop-sided in favor of Austin when Bob Rutledge scored Millsaps third and last touchdown. The clock ran out before the Majors had another chance to score, and there was nothing to do but accept a hard loss as the reward for a very fine game.

Millsaps 40 Georgetown 7

Fresh with the taste of victory from their win over Southwestern, the Majors went on the rampage to slaughter the Georgetown, Kentucky, Tigers 40 to 7 in one of the most lop-sided contest for the Majors ever played on Alumni field. Halfback Bob Rutledge led the Majors' scoring parade with an impressive record; three touchdowns and four extra points. Quarterback Don Mitchell personally accounted for two more scores and Halfback Pat Barrett made the final tally. It was Millsaps' game from beginning to end. An excellent defense and an unsurpassed scoring ability combined to make it a big day for enthusiastic spectators and players alike.

Millsaps 3 Maryville 14

Backed by a spirited crowd cheering at their own field, the Scotsmen of Maryville, Tennessee, trounced the highly favored Millsaps Majors in a 14 to 3 contest. The Majors only score was a field goal kicked early in the game by the golden toe of Bob Rutledge. Though the score remained a close 7-3 throughout most of the game, with 41 seconds remaining the Scots sprinted over their good defensive qualities, but showed a disappointing lack of scoring ability against the Scots. All in all, it was hard to take the loss after their two previous overwhelming victories.

Majors 7 Livingston 0

Bouncing back from their loss to Maryville the Majors took a 7-0 contest from the Livingston State's Tigers at Livingston. A touchdown by Gaines Massey and an extra point by Bob Rutledge were all that was needed for the win. Millsaps showed their best defense of the season against Livingston holding them scoreless throughout the game. The Majors fumbled away other big scoring opportunities in the game after their first touchdown. However, the game was theirs and they had their third "sweet taste of Victory."

Millsaps 7 Ouchita 20

The Majors had wanted to make their last game of the season another big victory, but their hopes were dashed by a 20 to 7 loss to the Ouchita Tigers at Alumni Field. The Millsaps men made a courageous last effort. The score remained tied 7-7 until the last quarter. It was then that Ouchita made their last two touchdowns to clinch the game. Nevertheless, even with the loss, the Majors finished the season with the best overall record in several years and some impressive victories to remember for a lifetime.

HF Bob Rutledge gains precious yardage before being hauled down.

The Majors' offense prepare to plunge forward for a possible gain in yardage.

"I was an ole cowhand, but how in the dickens did I get into this?"

"You may think we're horsin' around, but YOU'LL NEVER KNOW!"

"OH, NO! I'm going the WRONG WAY!"

"Now wait, boys—if you want it THAT bad, I'll give it to you!"

THE 1962-63 BASKETBALL TEAM

BASKETBALL

With an excellent starting lineup and a number of good reserve players, Coach James A. Montgomery had Millsaps' best basketball personnel in many years. But they faced a formidable schedule of powerful foes, including several new opponents, and many away-from-home games. In their first two outings they were soundly defeated and lost much of their pre-season optimism. They regained a great deal of their spirit by defeating Southwestern in their first victory on the road in more than three years. Yet throughout most of the season the Millsaps Majors played as the underdog. In the end, however, they had managed to eke out six victories in twenty-eight contests.

No chance for defense when Fred captures the ball. TWO POINTS!

REBOUND! Now it's our time for two!

Charlie wards off would-be attackers as Phil Converse shoots.

Look, boys, I CAN Fly!

1962 TRACK

Last spring the Millsaps campus saw its first year of varsity track, and the Majors did well for themselves in their season in both team and individual competition. Events in which they starred included the pole-vault, discus, hurdles, high jump, broad jump, mile run, javelin, shotput, and the relay. They competed at meets at neighboring schools such as Southwestern, Taylor, and Howard, to name a few. In these meets the team broke existing records in the 440-yard and the 880-yard relay. In the fall, the cross-country team made a good showing at the tri-college meet in Memphis with Bambuth and Southwestern. All in all, twelve athletes earned letters in track during the season. The enthusiastic support of the student body at the track meets last spring was a great encouragement to the team, which gives every sign that this spring will be an even better year in track.

Supreme effort and concentration are personified in Dan Denton's hurdles.

ACTION! Mighty Wayne Dickerson hurls the discus over the rough sod

Ken Eikert finishes first!

Preparation for the race is just as important as the race itself; Pat and Rocky start to "warm up" by doing push-ups.

Gibson Sims strong-arms the javelin.

Bill Curry races on to retain his lead in the cross-country race.

1962 BASEBALL

Enthusiasts of the national sport looked forward to the late spring when Millsaps would produce another excellent baseball team. A number of returning lettermen gave promise once again of a winning season. With spirits undampened by last year's record of four wins against nine losses, the squad worked eagerly to shine on the diamond.

Denny Britt rounds the diamond, scoring for the Majors.

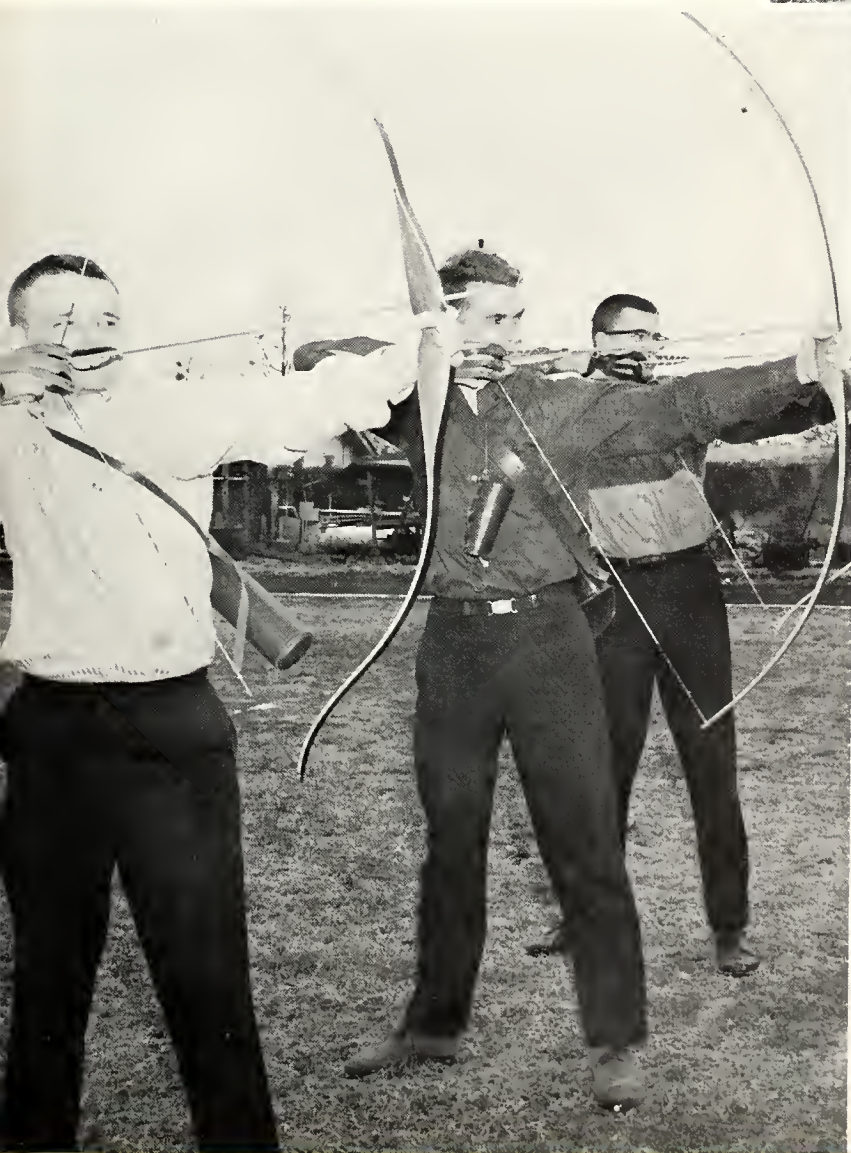

Burnett Hull races toward first base in a desperate effort to BEAT THAT BALL.

ARCHERY

Just as the BOBASHELA was going to the publisher, Millsaps, under the direction of Dean Christmas was in the process of forming the first Archery Club. We regret that we do not have any more information on them, but we did want to give these boys and their sponsor a hardy congratulations and wish them success in the coming year.

TENNIS

On the tennis courts the Millsaps Majors played one of their best sports. The team has an enviable reputation in inter-collegiate play in the South. 1963 promises to be one of their greater years with several lettermen and one letterwoman returning.

Millsaps' only woman and number two tennis team player, Barbara Whyte.

A practice session before the tournament.

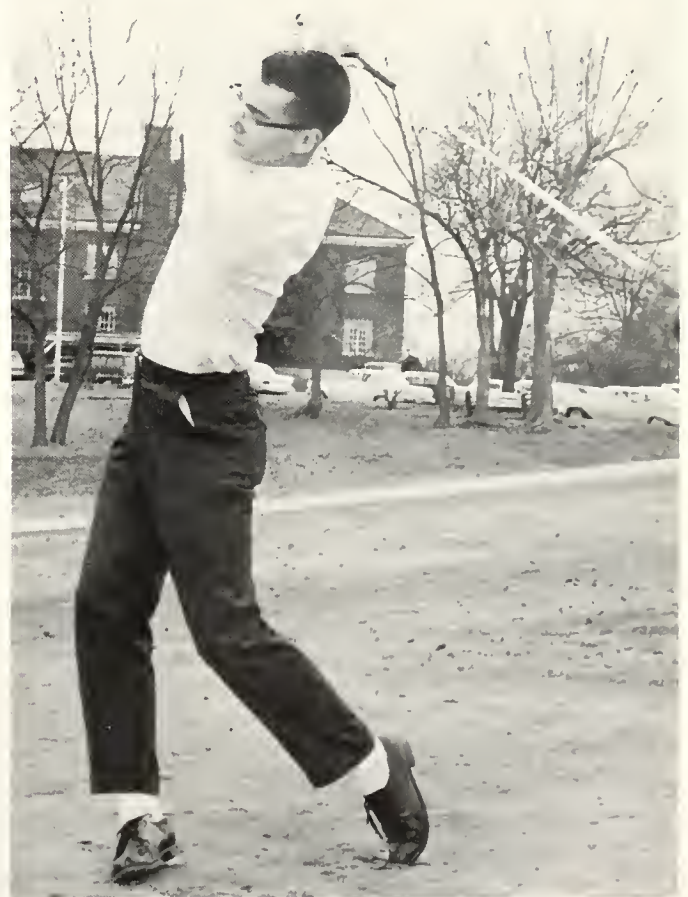

Front: Preston Wells, Webb Buie, Larry Broadhead. Back: John Aldridge, Jimmy Williams, Coach Edge, Don Miller, Clyde Satterwhite.

GOLF

Warm days brought out the Majors' golfers to perform on the largest sports field before the smallest crowds. Return of the main lettermen from last year gave the team a good chance to excel in inter-collegiate play. But the team had lost its best player in many years; Mary Mills had entered professional women's tournaments.

Jimmy Williams blasts a long ball down the midway for a good opening shot.

Don Miller tees off with a mighty blow.

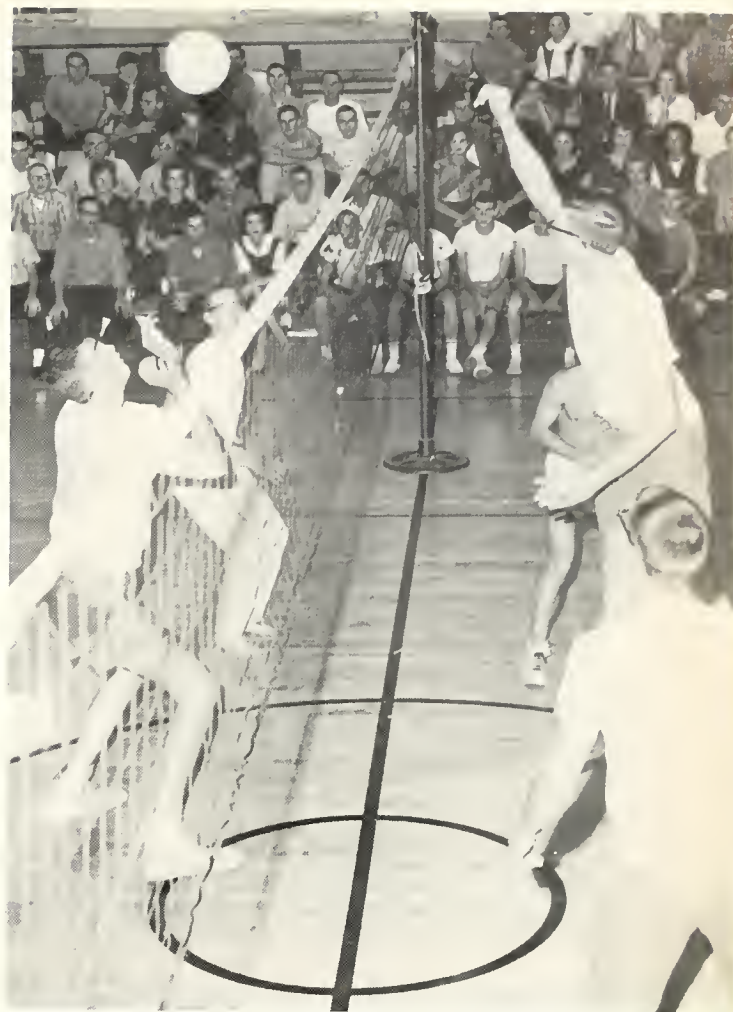

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

Coach Montgomery is the director of the boys' intramural competition at Millsaps. All four fraternities and the Independents enter teams for the five designated sports: basketball, softball, volleyball, tennis and golf. Speedball, which has been the cause of numerous injuries in the heated inter-fraternity play, was dropped by the Intramural Council early in the fall. However, competition was still keen and interest lively in the other sports, as each fraternity tried hard to capture the coveted Intramural Trophy, which the Kappa Alpha's have held for three straight years.

"I'll teach those young squirts how to REALLY hit a ball!"

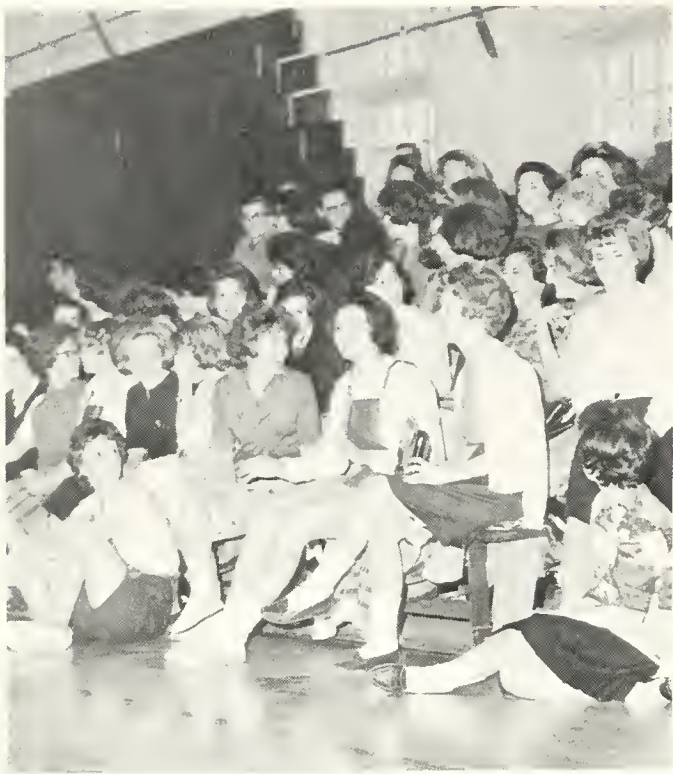

STEVE: "I don't know what you're doing, Fred, you know I'm the best player, even if I'm NOT seven feet tall."

And people think that the ballet is hard!

"These here shades, Charlie, just DON'T take the place of night time."

Annual gathering of the Peace Corps.

Ball in two—hands.

We may be delinquents, but we AREN'T juvenile!

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

Girls intramurals are under the supervision of Miss Ann Edge. The various sports in which the four sororities and the independent teams participate are basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, golf, and badminton. Team champions are determined in volleyball, basketball, and softball. Individual girls are declared in the tennis, badminton, and golf competition. The girls' intramural trophy is awarded to the sorority which compiles the greatest number of points for individual and team competition in the six sports.

Somebody pushed!

I used to have that slumped-over feeling—but no more!

Some people just WON'T leave you alone!

"To the victor goes the spoils"—A BALL?

Come on, gals, be a sport—let me play!

Up in the air, Junior birdmen!

She votes in each one of the five-hundred elections in the first week.

He sleeps through three eight o'clock's every week.

They try in vain to drown out the Pep Band at football games.

They survive the twelve-hour-long-registration line each semester.

These things make Millsaps lively, and the students love it.

Um . . . Glurp * glumpfrst!

The first meeting of the Young Republicans Committee will now come

OOOOh! That tickles!

SEVEN come 'LEBEN

Vigoro, anyone?

So where's the mice?

ON ORDINARY DAYS WE

- . . . eat on any and all occasions.
- . . . steal trays from the cafeteria at the first sign of snow.
- . . . put in as many grill hours as class hours.

What a way to look for contacts?

Handouts ain't never been so good!

But after the seventh teddy bear, the barker said . . .

Oh, JACK! He, he, he, he.

Aw, go ahead—finesse for it.

FOR FUN WE

- ... spend fifteen dollars trying to win a teddy bear at the fair.
- ... have bridge-gossip parties on dateless weekends.
- ... meet at Mac's every night at 10:00.

"I wish Momma could see us now!"

"Go away, can't you see we're busy?"

"And then he says to me, he says . . ."
"And then I says to him, I says . . ."

The froggy went a 'courtin' . . .

Mrs. Goodman! What would Amy Vanderbilt say about that?!

Work it out, baby . . .

Rockettes, here I come!

'twas the night before—you'd never know it!

The orchestra's left—so what?

It's about that heating system in the old Chi O house.

All right, who mixed this one!?

But Charlie, I can't wear my yellow ribbon ALL the time!

ON HOLIDAYS WE

- ... save up cuts to leave as early as possible.
- ... have an unbroken record of attendance at all Christmas dances.
- ... break open fat piggy banks to pay Christmas "debts."

A KA bid?!

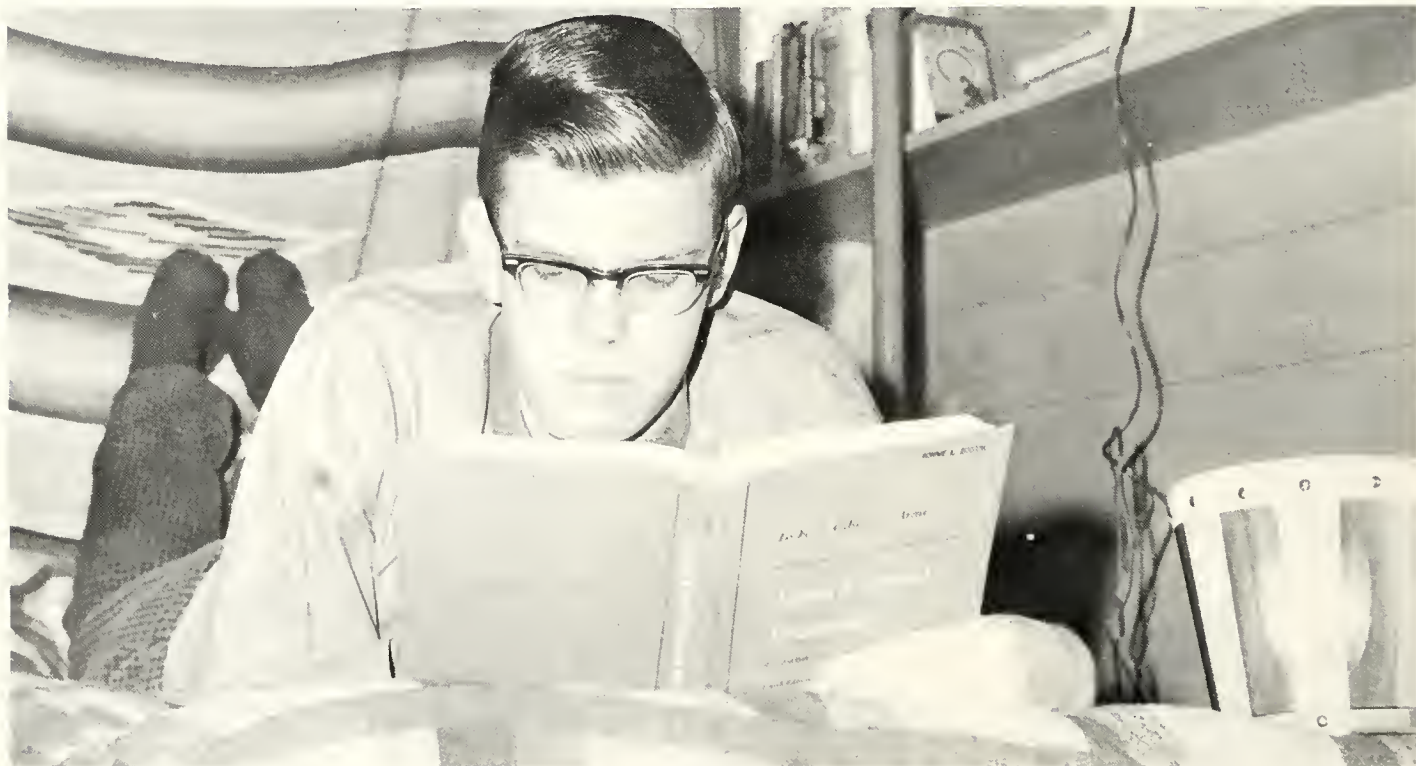

ON SPECIAL DAYS WE

- ... bathe in mud for the glory of the freshman class.
- ... flash a well-practiced, "surprised" smile on Tap Day.
- ... battle the effects of Dex on exam days.

Bum, Bum, Bum, beer keg here I come!

... tomorrow I think I'll wear my green shirt ...

This is carrying the Kennedy program just a little too far.

But Charlie, we don't even know what's at the end of this rope!

Hey, would you tap that boy next to you?
